Storeroom News

April 2017

Thank you for your support this month. By promoting re-use of furniture and household goods, we have together saved over 14,300kgs of perfectly good items from landfill on our island. (That's about the same weight as 289 average small sofas - whew!)

THANK YOU!

Our Patron

Fred Dinenage MBE is an English television presenter, broadcaster and author. He has a TV career spanning more than 50 years. Fred was appointed Member of the Order of the British Empire (MBE) in the 2010 Birthday Honours.

We have a referral system in place, enabling people in need to qualify for a discount on many of the items offered for sale at Storeroom. Please ask your support provider for further information. Isle Help – Help through Crisis, will consider all applications for assistance for those experiencing genuine hardship. This April we collected re-usable items from 182 homes and 412 families benefitted from being able to purchase affordable household goods for their homes.

In 2016 around 2,369 households donated furniture and household goods to Storeroom and over 5,106 families were able to purchase affordable items to help make their accommodation more homely.

Storeroom2010 has a website with several pages giving information on our history, how we help and our Education project. Please visit www.storeroom.org.uk Around 116,200 views to date!

Storeroom has won the Chamber of Commerce Business in the Community Award 2016.

Well done to Team Storeroom for this great achievement.

This is the first time we have won in any of the categories. Team Storeroom - making a difference.

We have a small stock of brand new budget white goods for sale at Storeroom. Currently available are tumble dryers, fridges, fridge/freezers, microwaves and kettles. All available to take away or delivery can be booked for a fee.
